Orange & Blue Never Fades
For 179 years, the Alumni Association has been there to make sure of that, ensuring that the ties that bind alumni together, along with the University they love, remain strong and vital.

The Alumni Association is here to serve, innovate, celebrate, inspire and inform, supporting alumni and their families throughout their lives. Where the University leaves off, the Alumni Association begins. We’re here for things that matter—helping your sons and daughters navigate the admission process, reuniting you with old friends on Grounds, or assisting you in managing your career.

Just as the Association has stood by UVA alumni, it has also been a steadfast partner for the University. Whether it’s keeping the fires burning by supporting the restoration of fireplaces in the Lawn and Range rooms, providing scholarships and programs for students and resources for the Honor System, or raising seed money to launch groundbreaking University programs, the Alumni Association has stepped up time and time again.

No matter where you are in life, the Alumni Association is there for you. No matter the opportunities—and challenges—the University may face, we are there for UVA.

Alumni Hall
Formed on July 4, 1838, the Alumni Association of the University of Virginia was the sixth such group organized in the United States. A charter was granted to the University near the end of the nineteenth century by the General Assembly of Virginia. The association was originally housed in Pavilion VII on the Lawn of the Academical Village. In 1936 it moved to its current location, the Kappa Phi House on Emmet Street and named Alumni Hall. Numerous renovations and additions have been added to the structure, but the main entrance to the building is the original footprint.
